TO THE

HOLDERS OF

Military Land Warrants,

FOR THE PURPOSE OF LOCATING.

JAMES E. SMITH as early as the 2d of Sept. shortly after his return from viewing the Military Land, offered his service to the holders of Military Land Warrants for the purpose of classing, registering and locating them, in consequence of an arrangement made with Mr. James Johnson in July preceding, on the land, for the purpose of exploring the sections in the whole survey. This business having been carried into compleat effect by Mr. Johnson, with the assistance of an intelligent inhabitant of that country, they having taken notes descriptive of the situation, soil and natural advantages attached to each section in the whole survey. Mr. Johnson being now here with those notes, together with the said J. F. Smith having a compleat copy of the Surveyor General's return, made to the Treasury Department of the Township surveys.

Being thus informed the subscribers, jointly, offer their services to the holders of warrants of the above description, to receive, register and locate, for which one tenth part of the land located will be required as a compensation—for locating where the registry is already made, as may be hereafter agreed on by applying to either of the subscribers. Such of the honorable the members of Congress as may now hold, or may receive warrants from their friends before the 11th of February next, by addressing a line to either of the subscribers, through the medium of the Post Office, will be waited on agreeable to their appointment.

For Nervous Disorders, Female Complaints, Gout in the Stomach, Melancholy, Seminal Weakness, loss of Appetite, Bilious Disorders, Inward Weaknesses, Indigestion, Obstinate Gleets, Juvenile Indiscretions and Premature Old Age, and every other symptom of extreme debility, which are the consequences of a Dissipated Life—excess of Pleasure or Grief—Heat or change of Climate—Immoderate use of Tea, Spirituous Liquors, or any Intemperance—Bad Lyings-in—Diseases incident to Young Girls and Women at a certain period of life—

The Cordial Restorative Balsam

Is recommended as a Medicine of specific and unparalleled virtues for the immediate relief and speedy and permanent cure of the above disorders, having stood a trial of many successful years, during which period many thousands of both sexes have been restored from the brink of the grave.

This Balsam is particularly adapted to weak female constitutions, as well as to phlegmatic habits in general; it acts powerfully as a nervine, not only to the weak stomach, but to the whole nervous system! corrects a vitiated appetite and digestion in the first passages, and assists wonderfully in recovering the tone of the urinary and genital organs:—Hence its efficacy in the most obstinate seminal gleets in men, and corresponding weaknesses in women; and hence it will contribute more safely, surely and honourably towards conjugal happiness, than any of those irritating, diabolical compositions, which are so shamefully administered to the unwary.

It is earnestly recommended to those ladies, who from repeated and difficult labours are afflicted with weaknesses and infirmities; in which cases it is highly useful, strengthening at the same time the stomach, the back, the weakened organs, and the whole constitution.

Those, who in advanced life, feel the consequences of youthful excess, or unfortunate youth, who have brought on themselves a numerous train of evils, will by the use of this find themselves restored to health and strength, and all the melancholy symptoms removed, which are the general effects of such causes.

For whether the system has received a shock, and is debilitated from imprudence or inattention in the earliest part of life, or is sinking under the advance of years, a few doses of this medicine will afford immediate assurance of returning health and strength, by giving tone to the muscular system, and organs of digestion, and by renovating the whole constitution.

To the young it will afford lasting health, strength and spirits, in place of lassitude and debility: and to the aged and infirm, it will assuredly furnish great relief and comfort, by gently and safely invigorating the system; but if it be in the power of medicine to gild the autumn of declining years, and calmly and serenely protract the close of life beyond its narrow span, this Restorative is capable of effecting that grand desideratum.

Constitutions relaxed, weak or decayed, in men or women, are under the immediate influence of this Restorative.

Old coughs soon relieved and speedily cured.

Poverty of blood and emaciated limbs, will ere long meet the happiest change; the chill watery fluid become rich and balsamic, and the limbs be covered with flesh, firm and healthful.

It will no doubt be acceptable to the reader, to see accounts of some of the remarkable cases and cures which have been performed by this truly invaluable medicine, in the disorders for which it was invented; he has therefore selected a few of such cases as have come within his own immediate knowledge, which are published and may be had (gratis) at any of the places where the medicine is sold.

Prepared (only) by the Inventor and sole Proprietor, Dr. James Church, at his Dispensary, 157, Front street, near the Fly-market, New-York—and sold by Messr. H. & P. Rice, 16, South Second Street, Philadelphia.

There is about 550 acres of land, and the whole of it good soil for agriculture, and a full proportion of it very suitable for grass; about one half of it is cleared and in a state fit for immediate cultivation; the rest is in woods and well covered with useful timber of different kinds. As to the improvements on the farm, there is a decent dwelling house with the usual out houses, a good brick spring house, and a large new excellent barn, one story of brick, and the other framed work, two orchards of apples and of peaches, in full perfection and good fruit.

The mills consist of three pair of bur stones for the grinding of wheat, and one pair of stones for grinding of corn, all of proved good quality, worked by overshot water wheels and double gears, with all the late improvements for skreening, cleaning, bolting and elivating the wheat and flour, all executed in the best manner and of the best materials and quite new—The mill house is large and convenient, being 46 feet by 72 feet with five floors, the two lower stories are brick, the rest framed work executed in the most substantial manner; the house and machinery of the mills will be found unexceptionable, and they are to situated as to be free from all risque from the freshes or inundation of the water courses—There is a very convenient brick bake house two stories high, with two large ovens; a very good house for the proprietor or manager, a store room, counting room, kitchen, &c. also suitable houses for millers, coopers, and bakers—The tide water from James River flows to the walls of the mill, where boats of three to four hundred bushels burthen can receive their loads out of the mill, and in one miles distance, ships of any size that navigate James River, can load in great safety.

The neighborhood is healthy—very respectable as to inhabitants, being mostly independent farmers, and the soil is in general very justly esteemed equal to any on James River, for the growing of wheat; upon a moderate calculation, the average annual crops of the neighborhood equally convenient if not more so, to the Norwich Mills, than to any other market, amount to between thirty and forty thousand bushels of wheat. Mr. John P. Gordon who lives on the premises at present, will shew the whole to those who may incline to view it.

I would prefer a purchaser who could pay down the principal part of the purchase money, and would give a very advantageous bargain—or I will sell on a credit convenient to the purchaser, the interest being paid annually. I will wait for a purchaser till the 15th day of March next, and if not then sold, I will be glad to treat with a tenant for a lease, on terms which may be mutually agreeable. I have offered the whole of this estate for sale, on a prrsumption that the purchaser of the mills would incline to have the land also, for a supply of building timber, oven wood and hoop poles; but if it be more agreeable to him to take the mills and a few acres of land, he shall be accommodated accordingly.

WATER-OFFICE.

Centre Square, Febeuary 5, 1800.

IN compliance with the instructions of the Committee for watering the city, and with my own inclinations, every possible admittance and information has been given to those citizens who have visited the Works during their progress. The Engines are now arrived, and are immediately to be put up, and it is hoped that it will be thought reasonable and just, both to the Public, and to the Contractor for the Engines, that the workmen should not be interrupted. As a very few months will fully gratify the curiosity of the citizens, by shewing them the Engines in full operation, a temporary exclusion of all visitors from the Engine houses cannot appear improper.

TO THE EDITOR

Of the GAZETTE of the UNITED STATES.

SIR,

ON my return from Maryland a few days ago, I observed in your paper of the 7th inst. a Certificate signed William Dawson the 3d, and dated Elkton, August 13th, 1799, stating certain observations to have been made by me, at the house of Mrs. Bicker, and in the presence of the gentlemen who lodged there.

I declare the whole to be an impudent fabrication of William Dawson, who was made the cat's-paw of a slandering party in Cecil county, for the purpose of defeating my election which came on in October following. He was told by a respectable gentleman, at the time he gave the certificate, that he was an infamous liar, of which he took no notice, and from the notoriety of his character in the said county, his certificate gained no converts to a party who could make little or no use of it. For what purpose those abettors of calumny have revived it after a lapse of 19 months I know not, unless with an intention to lessen my influence at the next election. In the winter subsequent to the date of the Certificate I mentioned the affair to Messrs. Sprigg and Smith, two of the gentlemen stated to have been present, and neither recollected me to have made use of observations amounting to the statement in Dawson's Certificate—Mr. Dent does not think he was present when I spoke to those gentlemen on the subject.

As the character of Dawson in Cecil county shielded him at the time from personal chastisement I have deemed it unworthy of myself to notice him, but should any of those persons, who obtained and gave circulation to this story in Cecil county, think proper to say that they were the publishers, perhaps they may meet some notice from

G. CHRISTIE.

Philadelphia, Feb. 11, 1800.

TO THE EDITOR,

SIR,

IN the Governor's Reply to the Senate, a severe censure is implied upon the officers he has displaced, on either of the grounds he has thought proper to adopt as the motives to their removal. A want of capacity; a prostitution of official influence to party purposes, not in the maintenance of their own independence, but in the defamation of the Executive Magistrate; or a disposition inimical to the genuine principles of our republican institutions, are the principal causes assigned for this bold and unprecedented measure.

As one of the officers displaced, I feel no hesitation in yielding to the impulse of repelling the unmerited reproach, though proceeding from so high a source; and though till very late, a Subordinate officer in the state (from which degraded condition I am now happily emancipated) of reprobating as an infamous calumny any such insinuation, relative to myself, which the Executive Magistrate may have listened to, in the hope of finding a plausible pretext for meditated vengeance or predetermined arrangements.—But ex-parte evidence, from interested witnesses, however strong, is a miserable apology for his conduct. And it was hardly to be suspected, that a man, who for more than twenty years has been employed in the administration of justice, should have proceeded to judgment and condemnation on such questionable testimony—on the tales of sycophants and office-hunting scoundrels, for the admission of which, a receptacle like the ear of Dionysius or the Lion's mouth at Venice, has for several months been open. Done it, however, he has; and tho' the dignity of first servant of the people (I speak as a Republican) may be wounded by this plain dealing, let it be remembered, that his excellency, wearing a sword, and having cavalier-like, appealed to his rights as a private gentleman; I avail myself of his example, and claim the privilege of remonstrating freely upon the terms of reproach, which, as "a private gentleman, personally responsible, I trust he would not have condescended to employ."

As a proof that I have hitherto maintained my independence, in acting as well as thinking, in matters affecting the interests of my country, I can with pride refer my friends and enemies, to the open and decided part I took in the last election; and have now the satisfaction to declare to the Chief Magistrate of Pennsylvania, and his constituents, that had it depended upon me, he would most certainly never have figured in that exalted station, to the bitter mortification of his discerning friends, and malicious joy of his enemies. But in making this declaration, I also declare, that I descended to no personalities, and most sedulously guarded against any expressions which might be deemed defamatory. Not so much from an opinion, that the vices of a candidate ought not to be laid before the public, (a right which indeed is guaranted by the constitution, which the governor professes to be his guide,) as that, knowing the intolerance of the man, and having heard of his intended proscriptions, I was resolved in my own case, to leave him no pretext for the measure.

"By a prostitution of official influence to party purposes," the Governor cannot certainly intend, the merely being seen at those associations which are formed for the purpose of uniting the friends, and promoting the interest of a candidate.——Without these, the mere right of voting would be a sorry privilege indeed. And when such meetings were began by his partizans; when the worst engines of earth and hell were set in motion to promote their designs; when the deadly and implacable spirit of revenge and extermination, which is depopulating Europe was carefully transplanted among us, and all but good Jacobins denounced as enemies to their species; when the claim of exclusive republicans, was insolently and wickedly assumed, though shamelessly violated in every instance; when disingenuous, mean and canting publications, to which a man of honor would have disdained to set his name, and reams of lying hand-bills, teeming with the basest falsehoods against the general government, and its adherents, were circulated to mislead the people; did the Governor expect, the friends to truth to be such wittols as to content themselves with privately sneaking to the place of election and giving in their tickets? But even such a conduct furnishes no exemption from his wrath. No prudence could save—no caution could secure. Neutrality was criminal. They who were not for him were against him, and the discreet and the rash, the timid and the bold are equally destined to feel their debasement in being slaves to such a master.—He talks of defaming the Executive Magistrate, but was Mr. M'Kean Governor before the election; and did the majesty of this high calling commene from the epoch, when in evil hour he was selected for a candidate?

Sensible that the general logic of the reply requires some bolstering, his excellency, though himself unsatiated with more than twenty years enjoyment of official honors and emoluments, suggests the propriety of rotation in office! but if he has been influenced by this principle, he has been miserably unhappy in the application of it. Far be it from me to wish an injury to the gentleman who holds the office of prothonotary to the supreme court, for whom I have an high respect; but if the principle was adopted, is it not unaccountable that he has been overlooked in the general devastation?

But the devastation we are told is not to be general, and that his excellency has discriminated and selected his victims. He has re-appointed, he tells us, some of his most influential opponents, and thus by a fatality peculiar to all his attempts at apology, deprived himself of the only solitary excuse which remained for his conduct. A blind impulse of passion may sometimes disfigure a generous mind, but a cool, calculating vengeance is the unequivocal mark of a deliberate *******.

In the same view of propping his tottering vindication, he ventures to insinuate the necessity of confidence and cordiality between the principal and subordinate officers in the state. At a future election, indeed, this cordiality may be of infinite importance; or in case the magnanimous idea should occur of an embassy from the sovereignty of Pennsylvania to the new triumvirate of France, it cannot admit of a doubt, that the envoy whoever he may be, should possess this confidence and cordiality; but that this intimate connection should subsist between a governor and the mere clerks of county courts, is not so apparent.

With a degree of boldness, not to have been expected, the chief magistrate presumes to call the public attention to his appointments, and does not blush in claiming approbation for them, rather than censure; and with a flimsy sophistry, which would be disgraceful to a private gentleman, holds up the idea, that he has received the approbation of the whole house of representatives, and the denunciation of but a small majority of the senate. But what are the appointments that the public are thus called upon to test? Look at Cumberland, at Montgomery, at Luzerne, &c. &c. &c. and to come nearer home, I fear it will be wretchedly puzzled to find, "the patriotism and talents which in the county of Dauphin, have been called from retirement into the public service."

As to my degraded self, I can only apply for consolation to my own, and to the hearts of all honest men who know me—to the yet living gentlemen of the army with whom I had the honor to serve in seasons of difficulty and peril—to the testimony of the court in whose service I have officiated several years—and, to that of the bar, who are certainly well qualified to judge of my conduct and integrity—and I defy the utmost malice of my enemies, for whom I now declare my ineffable contempt, to make good against me a single imputation of unfairness or dishonor.

With respect to the suggestion of some of the deranged officers being hostile to the genuine principles of our republican institutions, it might justly be considered as unworthy of notice, till something more than insinuation is produced. But from what is it inferred? Is it for approving of the administration of the general government, or from being incapable of viewing the great nation, in the endearing light of our sister republic? And against which of our institutions is this hostility entertained? It is certainly no crime to be inimical to our federal institutions, or the electioneering partizans of Mr. M'Kean would never be thus overwhelmed with honorable and substantial tokens of his benignity and favor.

Misera est Servitus ubi Jus est vagum aut incognitum. And if to have labored to support the general government—to have approved of the ratification of the treaty with Britain—If to have invariably advocated the system of policy adopted and pursued by the patriotic Washington and his successor, are to subject a man to proscription and ruin; what are we to think of the monstrous incongruity of governor M'Kean's eulogium on this departed hero. Perhaps it was a sacrifice the republican interest required—though had the offerer of it been apprised how fervently this great, lamented man, had deprecated the event of his election, it is much to be doubted, whether even the benefit of his "expanded name" and the popularity of appearing to act under its auspices, could have impelled the very "little bark" of his excellency into a "pursuit of the triumph and a participation of the gale."

Having now, I trust, completely rent the veil with which the chief magistrate has endeavored to conceal the horrid deformity of his conduct, towards his miserable dependants, the subordinate officers of the state, I take my leave with the observation—That if truth be not a libel, if the language of reproach be not the exclusive privilege of a governor, and the term servant of the people be any more than jacobinical cant, I must be justified in asserting, that the Chief Servant of Pennsylvania has prostituted his official power to the purpose of gratifying a heart, which in meanness and malignity would not have disgraced the bosom of a Nero or Domitian; and that after having fully glutted his vengeance in the ruin of a number of worthy men and their families, he is at length willing, after the example of the revolutionary patriots of France, when whirled to the top of the wheel, "to subdue political distrust, and party feud, for the honor of the state, the interest of his constituents, and his own happiness."

ALEXANDER GRAYDON.

Harrisburgh, Feb. 4, 1800.

The following facts, are selected from Rose's "Brief examination, into the increase of the revenue, commerce, and manufactures of Great Britain, from 1792, to 1799."

1. That Great Britain, is now raising, within the year, by a war tax, a large proportion of the whole supplies.

2. That to carry on the present war, reckoning from the year 1793, to 1798 inclusive, the government of Great Britain, has created a capital by loans, amounting to 169,927,789 pounds; to pay the interest, management, &c. of which, she raised a tax, equal to 7,931,215, independent of her taxes, to pay the interest, &c. of the credit, created before the year 1793.

3. That amidst all the difficulties of the war, and urgency of providing money, to carry it on, she has not trenched in the smallest degree on the fund allotted, for the extinction of the old, and new national debt, and has with inflexible perseverance, pursued the measure, of providing, in every new loan, a surplus, for the redemption of it.

4th. That the sinking fund of 1786, and the sinking fund of 1792, amount to 4,294,042 pounds.

5th. That the sinking fund of 1786, has redeemed of the capital, of the old debt, 28,677,689; and the sinking fund of 1792, of the capital created in the present war 8,904,082; so that there has been a total capital actually redeemed, amounting to 37,381,771 pounds.

6th. That, by the sole operation of these sinking funds, without any further intervention of Parliament, supposing the 3 per cents. to be on an average at 75 pounds, the capital of the old debt, which was about 240,000,000, will be completely redeemed, in the year 1842; and if the same price is assumed, in computing the period of redemption of the new debt, created since the war, the 3 per cents, will be redeemed, in less than thirty five years, from the time of making each loan: but at the present price, viz. 53 1-2, the 3 per cents, created by new loans, would be redeemed, in twenty three years, and a quarter, from the time each was made.

7th. That the old taxes, existing previous to the war, have produced annually, on an average of seven years, from 1799, 1,080,000 pounds more than on an average of seven years of peace preceding, notwithstanding the imposition of new taxes, to the amount of 7,500,000 a year, within the same period.

8th. That the imports into Great Britain, have on a similar average, during the last seven years, exceeded those in the former period of seven years of peace, annually 4,230,000 pounds.

9th. That the British manufactures exported, have on a similar average, during the last seven years, exceeded those in the former period, annually, 4,008,000 pounds.

10th. That foreign goods, and manufactures, exported from Great Britain, have on a similar average, during the last seven years, exceeded those in the former period, annually 5,085,000 pounds.

11th. That the probable balance of the trade of Great Britain, is in her favor, on an average of the last four years, to the extent, of about 14,800,000 pounds per annum.

The preceding facts, ought to be well weighed, by our politicians, and the considerate, and reflecting part of the community. Admitting, what cannot be doubted, the correctness of these facts, Is Great Britain in her decrepitude or at the eve of a general dissolution, political, moral, and financial? It is with this Nation, so competent to every purpose of war, and every public exigency of State; so flourishing in her commerce and revenue; and so triumphant at sea, that the sage writer of the letter to Mazzie; and the lesser sages, who peep abroad for a moment, in morning and evening Chronicles, Auroras, and Examiners, think it adviseable, the United States, should avoid all commercial, or political connexion, least they be overwhelmed in her fall, which a short time ago, was considered, as inevitable.

At length it may be expected that the ghost of Jonathan Robbins is fairly laid at rest, and that the curs of faction will cease their howlings over his grave. In all the countless variety of democratic absurdities never did their blundering malice stumble on a more unpropitious theme. His name shall no longer resound amid their drunken festivals—no longer stand prominent on the page of their hireling libellists—no longer even infamous, it will sink into the same oblivious receptacle which entombs the other saints of the Newgate Calendar; and rob his worthy panegyrists of one interesting topic for their eloquence, till some new Hero shall arise to claim their devotion, armed with the triple merit of perjury, piracy and murder.

James Lyon, the late printer at Fairhaven, (Ver.) and a legitimate son of the INFAMOUS Mat. Lyon, has been convicted of publishing a libel on Capt. Peter French, and sentenced to pay a fine of 500 dollars damages, in favor of the plaintiff.

[Newark Gaz.

This inheritant of libellous justice, has since made his retreat to Richmond, (Vir.) where he has issued his proposals, and is soliciting subscriptions, throug the medium of every Republican Press in the Union for a once a fortnight paper, entitled "The Friend of the People," to be printed on the largest size paper in use, well executed, for One Dollar a year. In the name of Liberty and Virtue, he calls on the Republicans for their support, as his object is grand, and devoted to their service. The motives which have induced him to undertake this publication is stated in his address, which appeared in the Centinel of Freedom last Tuesday, and is truly demonstrative of every Democratic design against the Federal Government, and its worthy Helmsman.

IS THE MAN A GIANT?

A pair of shoes was made a few days ago in this city, by Mr. William Grum, in Chressens Alley, between Fifth and Sixth streets, for a man in the Jersey: the size of which is so astonishing, that we communicate their dimension to the public—incredible as it may appear, the fact is to be relied on, that the measurement of one shoe is as follows:

	Inches.
The length of the shoe	28⅜
length of the hind quarter	13½
length of the vamp	9
length of the heel	6
width of the sole	6½
width of the heel	5½
length of the vamp over the instep	12½
circumference over the instep	20
circumference length-ways	44

N. B. In one of these shoes, two sizeable men put all four of their feet, and did not fill it; nevertheless it is supposed that the shoes will be rather tight on the man's feet for whom they are made. The price of making them was six dollars. We are told that the man has no disease in his feet, but they are of their natural size; and that he is an active smart man, of prodigious bulk. It is in contemplation to procure a pair of his old shoes for the Museum, if he will agree to it.

LEGISLATURE OF NEW-YORK.

February 2.

Extract from the answer of the House of Assembly to the speech of his Excellency the Governor, at the commencement of the session.

The provision for amendment in our federal constitution being of the highest importance to the political welfare of the United States, we deem it our duty to devise or approve every alteration in that compact, which experience and sound policy may dictate. The high respect we entertain for the State of Vermont is a sure pledge for our deliberate consideration of the resolutions of its legislature on this subject.

The independence of the executive and judicial officers of the State, is of the utmost consequence to just execution of the laws and the impartial administration of justice. We therefore consider permanence in the allowance to those officers as intimately connected with the happiness of our fellow citizens, and highly necessary in order to the preservation of the constitutional balance between the departments of government.

Yesterday arrived here from St. Kitts, the French schooner privateer Fly, commanded by Mr. Pierce, midshipman of the U. S. brig Pickering, to which vessel she is a prize. She sailed on the 21st ult. in co. with about 50 sail of American vessels, under convoy of the Pickering.

Mr. Pierce is the bearer of dispatches for government, from the several commanders on the West India station.

Yesterday arrived here from Liverpool the brig Halbrooke. Sayers, whence she sailed the 9th Dec. We have already had London news to the 14th December.

Left at Liverpool, the ships Peggy, Pallas, Nancy and Success, all of New York—the ship Hope, of Baltimore, and several other American vessels. Sailed in company with the ship Commerce of Baltimore.

Dec. 21, in lat. 43, long. 34, spoke the Susannah, Butler, from Hamburg to Philadelphia—out 16 days.

The ship Fortitude, Capt. Coffin, 74 days from Dublin, left there ship Hope, Webb, Wm. and Henry Sharp, and snow Dublin Packet, Greene, all of this port, to sail in about a week. Dec. 14, lat. 56 long. 43, spoke ship Betsey, from this port, bound to Liverpool, out 19 days.

The following is extracted from the log book of the ship Commerce:

"Sailed the 14th Oct. from Liverpool, and after experiencing several severe gales, was obliged to bear away for the West Indies on the 10th Dec. having lost our bowsprit and being much shattered in our rigging. Dec. 28, in sight of Antigua was brought too by a French privateer, who ordered us to send our boat on board, we assured them that our boat was so leaky she would not swim; they again insisted on the boat's coming; at this we hoisted out our boat, and sent her with two hands to bail, in order to keep her from sinking; it was with great difficulty they reached the privateer—they immediately sent back the boat with two armed men, who ordered the boat to return with several of our crew, they did not reach the privateer the second time before the boat sunk, and it was with great difficulty that we saved the people in the boat.

"The privateersmen then boarded us with pistols, drawn cutlasses, &c. and drove all our crew on board the privateer, except the capt. two mates, and one seaman, and ordered the ship for Guadaloupe, leaving a prize master and 8 men on board; at dark the prize master ordered the captain and mates into the cabin, not allowing us to have a light; at 7 in the evening discovered a ship to windward; the prize master immediately hauled to port; and kept the ship before the wind, we got a light in the cabin, and held it to the window in order that the ship in chase might keep sight of us; they soon after fired a gun and brought us too—she proved to be the United States frigate L'Insurgent, capt. Murray, who ordered us for St. Kitts. where we arrived the day following. The privateer made her escape.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 21.

We are informed by a gentleman from Greensborough, that Col. Hawkins had written to a gentleman on the frontier, by the Indian chief Big Beard, who was at Greensborough when our informant left there, that the Seminolas instigated by Bowles, were meditating mischief against this State; that they had made an attempt to kill Col. Hawkins but were prevented by a party of the Cowetas and Cussetahs headed by Big Beard; that the Indians came in for the purpose of informing the inhabitants on the frontier that it was only the Seminolas that were for war, and that the Cowetas and Cussetahs were friendly and would endeavor to guard them from injury.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, February 13.

Mr. Lieb withdrew his original proposition, and submitted the following, which was adopted without objection, viz.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to prepare and report a bill containing such legislative provisions as may be judged expedient, either for removing any military force of the United States, from any place of holding elections, or for preventing their interference in such elections.

Mr. H. Lee, from the select committee appointed for that purpose, reported a bill more effectually to provide for the national defence, by establishing an uniform militia, throughout the United States—which was read a first and second time, committed to a committee of the whole house for Monday, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Smith from the committee of commerce and manufactures, to whom was recommitted "a bill to extend the time of payment of bonds given for duties of impost in certain cases," reported the same, with amendments.

The bill was read a first and second time, and committed for to-morrow.

Mr. Livingston laid the following joint resolution on the table:

Resolved, by the Senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, that the following article be proposed to the legislatures of the several States, as an amendment to the constitution of the United States, which when ratified by three fourths of said legislatures, shall be valid as a part of the said constitution, viz.

"No judge of any court of the United States, shall during his continuance in office, or within six months after he may have resigned the same, be appointed to any other than a judiciary office under the United States."

Mr. Dana said, he wished some other regulation to be made, relative to the exclusion of strangers from the floor of the house within the bar—and to this effect proposed an order, that the door keeper be authorised to admit strangers on their presenting a card signed by one of the members, which card should mention the name of the bearer, and bear date on the day of admission—no member to have liberty to give more than one card in one day.

Mr. Macon did not approve of this regulation—nor was he a friend to the one lately adopted—he thought very little inconvenience was experienced before the recent regulation took place, and wished it to be rescinded.

The motion was ordered to lie on the table. Adjourned.

Eighteen Thousand Persons

Of all ages, within nine months past, have found relief from

HAMILTON's

Worm destroying Lozenges,

In various complaints arising from worms and from foulness or obstructions in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title so commonly complained of, as operating with a degree of violence, sufficient, not only to kill worms, but sometimes to endanger the patient's life; on the contrary, a peculiar excellence of this remedy is, its being suited to every age and constitution, contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is so mild in its operation, that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady, or the tendereft infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders

RECENT CURES

Selected from several hundreds, the authenticity of which, any person may ascertain either by letter or personal application—not being performed in Europe, nobody knows where—but at home.

AFFIDAVIT,

MICHAEL DUFFY, residing at No. 47, Wilkes street, Fell's point, in the city of Baltimore, voluntarily maketh oath, that the following flatement is just and true.

In the beginning of May last, my three children, a boy of seven, and two girls, the one five and the other three years of age, were taken very ill, nearly at the same time, of a common fever, as I then supposed; but was soon convinced the disorder was caused by worms—they were frequently troubled with convulsion fits, and violent startings in their sleep, and with almost continual vomiting and purging, particularly the youngest. I made immediate application to a physician of the first reputation, and his medicines were administered with a confidence of success which only encreased our disappointment. The children grew daily worse, and I was absolutely without hopes of their recovery. The youngest soon appeared almost devoid of animation, and scarcely an inhabitant of this world. In this distressing moment, I was told that Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges had performed many cures in cases equally desperate—I immediately purchased a box, and gave each of them a dose, which in a few hours produced the most desirable effects; the eldest voided a great number of very large worms, and the second thousands of small ones, many of them not a quarter of an inch long—in the youngest they seemed to be consumed, and had the appearance of skins and of slimy matter. I repeated the dose agreeable to the paper of directions, and they all speedily recovered a good state of health which they still enjoy, tho' five months have nearly elapsed since they were on the borders of the grave, and the death of the whole appeared to be inevitable.

Sworn before me this 26th day of September, 1799. J. SMITH.

LETTER

From Mr John J. Abercrombly, Soap and Candle Manufacturer, No. 28, Bridge Street, Baltimore.

TO THE PROPRIETOR OF

Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges.

SIR, October 22, 1799.

I think it my duty to inform you that I have experienced the happiest effects from your Lozenges, having been much afflicted for four years past, with various complaints caused by worms, particularly a constant pain in my stomach and bowels, frequent and severe head ache, with a general lassitude and weakness, during which time I had the best medical advice that could be obtained from the most skilful physicians I could hear of, both American and European, without any alleviation of my disorder.

I should, too probably, have continued without relief, but for your Worm Destroying Lozenges, which brought from me an astonishing quantity of small white worms, about the size of a coarse thread, and in a short time, I found myself perfectly free from all my former complaints, and have enjoyed a good state of health for five months past.

I have constantly recommended your medicine, and shall as long as I live, having, from, my own experience reason to believe it to be an invaluable and unparalell'd remedy. Should any person wish for further information, I will with pleasure satisfy their enquiries on this subject. JOHN J. ABERCROMBY.

SIR, July 10, 1799.

I had been a long time afflicted with a violent and gnawing pain in my stomach, a dull, heavy, continual head ache, with a frequent swimming in my head, accompanied with dimness of sight and sometimes partial blindness, and was rendered incapable of attending my business, thro' loss of strength; sometimes could scarcely eat a morsel for two or three days; when my appetite would suddenly become astonishingly voracious. I firmly believed myself to be in a consumption, which must soon put a period to my life, when happily hearing of several cures performed by Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges in complaints which could not be accounted for, I took two doses, which expelled an incredible number of small sharp pointed worms: in short, I now enjoy as perfect health and strength, as ever I did in my life, and I believe my cure to be entirely effected by means of your medicine.

My brother witnessing its surprizing efficacy was induced to take a dose though in tolerable health, which occasioned him likewise to void a great quantity of worms of the same kind, and thereby probably prevented his experiencing those dreadful disorders with which I was afflicted.

A sincere desire that others in similar circumstances may receive the same benefit, is the reason of my sending you this account.

Yours, very respectfully,
AQUILA GOLDING.

Hartford Road, 2 miles from Baltimore.

OBSERVE.

Those who wish to avail themselves of the benefits proposed by the above remedy, should be particularly careful as they value their money and their health, to guard against the numerous impositions daily attempted on the public, by applying to Mr. Wm. Y. Birch, Stationer, No. 17, South Second Street, who is appointed the only vender in Philadelphia.—Likewise observe that none can be depended on as being genuine, unless the signature of Lee & Co. is pasted on the outside of each.

Purchasers by the dozen or grose will receive a handsome allowance by application to Lee and Co. Market street, Baltimore.

TERMS

Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia;

FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE

JOURNALS OF CONGRESS;

From the commencement

Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,

INCLUDING

The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat type, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages, neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in size, paper, and binding, will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscribers become possessed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to subscribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publisher does not intend to print manmore than the number subscribed for, a considerable rise on the price may be expected to non-subscribers.

Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subscribers will have it at their option, either to subscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessness, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in those rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

"To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.

"The MEMORIAL of the Subscribers, Citizens, &c. of Philadelphia,

"Respectfully sheweth,

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed prosecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.
